Did you have a good weekend?

Yes, I did.

OPPURE

No, I didn't.

What did you do?

I went to the cinema with my friends.

I went shopping.

I did my homework.

I stayed at home and I watched a movie/a football match.

I ate some pasta.

Why?

Because I had too much homework to do.

Because I watched my favourite TV series

NB: “series” è singolare anche se finisce per “-s”!

Because I slept until late in the morning / I overslept.

To pretend = fingere, fare finta

Let's pretend you had a good/bad weekend...

= facciamo finta che hai avuto un bel/brutto fine settimana...
