

IL VERBO MODALE SHOULD

In inglese il verbo modale SHOULD si usa per dare suggerimenti.

FUNGE DA AUSILIARE!

La forma affermativa si costruisce applicando la seguente struttura:

SOGGETTO + SHOULD + VERBO FORMA BASE

You should take

E.g. You should take a ten-minute break every hour.

= Dovresti prenderti una pausa di dieci minuti ogni ora.

Affirmative form

TO TALK = parlare

I should talk = Dovrei parlare

You should talk

He, she, it should talk

We should talk

You should talk

They should talk

Negative form (short form)

AUX NEG

I shouldn't talk = Non dovrei parlare

You shouldn't talk

He, she, it shouldn't talk

We shouldn't talk

You shouldn't talk

They shouldn't talk

Come per tutti gli altri verbi modali, per formare la forma negativa è sufficiente far seguire SHOULD dalla particella negativa NOT.

Interrogative form

AUX SUBJ

Should I talk?

Should you talk?

Should he, she, it talk?

Should we talk?

Should you talk?

Should they talk?

Similmente, nella forma interrogativa SHOULD occorre a sinistra del soggetto in quanto funge da ausiliare.

Short answers

IL PRESENT CONDITIONAL

In inglese il condizionale presente si costruisce a partire dal verbo modale WOULD e applicando la seguente struttura:

SOGGETTO + WOULD + VERBO FORMA BASE

I                      would                      go                      = Io andrei.

NOTA BENE:

Se WILL rappresenta il futuro, WOULD rappresenta il condizionale.

Affirmative form
